

Elmhurst City Council Meeting

11 present; 3 Absent- Hipskind,
Healy, Honquist
Public: 11; Staff: 2; Police/Fire:1;
Press: 3

February 3, 2014
7:32 pm – 7:51 pm

Observer: N. Talluto

Mayor Morley called the meeting to order.

Presentation

- Lt. Colonel Mark Mallon presented the American Flag. Lt. Colonel Mallon has had a long and successful career in the armed services. He was at the meeting to thank the City of Elmhurst and its residents for all they have done to help him and his family and to support the military during Iraq and Afghanistan.

Public Forum

- Claude Pagash, 566 W. Gladys, shared that he has spent some time recently with Zoning and Planning and has observed that the commission has been “bending” the rules. Specifically, he is concerned about “new rules” that are being created for the two developments that are currently in progress in the City. Overall, he is tired of the city using General Obligation bonds to fund projects in the city.
- Michael K.(unable to understand his last name), 537 W. Crockett, shared that it would be nice to have time for preparations prior to the public forum to allow council members to provide their full attention to the public forum speakers.

Announcements

- Ald. York announced the upcoming YMCA fundraiser to help provide assistance for youth to participate in the programs and encourages all to support this great cause.
- Superior Ambulance will be holding another voter registration drive at its offices located at 395 W. Lake St., on 2/7/14 from 3 – 5 pm.

The Consent Agenda was passed (11 Ayes, 0 Nays) with no items removed.

A. 7.15 was pulled as it was on the agenda in error.

Reports and Recommendations of Appointed and Elected Officials

- Mayor Morley announced that Chick-fil-A will be opening to the public this Thursday. The State of the City was held last week and the Mayor encourages all to watch the video on the Chamber’s Website and local cable channels. Whole Foods will be moving to Elmhurst, taking over the old Dominick’s location.
- Acting City Manager Addison Public hearing has been continued to 2/13.

Other Business

- None

Adjournment

Meeting was adjourned at 7:51 pm.